

You will of course appreciate that this is not strictly a report of a UFO sighting, although this phenomenon, which I understand has been reported on a number of times in various locations since the last war, is indeed mystifying. However we have yet to find anything to suggest that it has any significance in defence terms.

Yours sincerely