

still, over the sea, in the way this did.

I might add I am 76 years old, & not given to wild flights of imagination!

I have enclosed a rough diagram of what I saw.

Yours faithfully,

Section 40

Sunset, & was too high in the sky. As I watched a brilliant ball of light detached itself from the "sunset" & moved steadily away to the left, on a dead straight line. I thought "that's a very brilliant moon" & then I realised it was travelling the wrong way for the moon - it was going from right to left. It was a most brilliant light, not flashing or twinkling but just moving steadily. As I watched, wondering what it could be, it curved downwards towards the sea, & then to my amazement hovered above the sea for quite some seconds, & then, having remained
