

Sunset, & was too high in the sky. As I watched a brilliant ball of light detached itself from the "sunset" & moved steadily away to the left, on a dead straight line. I thought "that's a very brilliant moon", & then I realised it was travelling the wrong way for the moon - it was going from right to left. It was a most brilliant light, not flashing or twinkling but just moving steadily. As I watched, wondering what it could be, it curved downwards towards the sea, & then to my amazement it hovered above the sea for quite some seconds, & then, having remained
